G. R. S. 59]

GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT.

P-6

190

(Legislation)

File No. 44-11

Serial No. 1

Papers Filed.

Month May 1912

SUBJECT.

Patronage for Law Publications -

PREVIOUS REFERENCES.	LATER REFERENCES

C.R. Nair
27/5/12

G.R.S. 11]

191 1-12

GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT.

(Legis)

NOTES.

File No. 44-11

FILE HEADING.

Patronage for Law Publications

From

The Managing Proprietor, Criminal Law Reporter
Parvatipur, Madras Dt.

No. 4060 Dated March 17 Received 22/3/12

D.O.

Diary No.	Enclos.	Spare Copies.	Serial No.
2824	one		1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests patronage for his publication the Criminal Law Reporter by bringing subscribing for a number of copies for being distributed to all the Magistrate courts in the State

NOTES AND ORDERS.

~~Submitted for orders~~

Sewas orders on the paper

" To 1st councillor with compliments

Sd/ D.A.R. 30/3/12

2 " Judicial "

Sd/ H.V.N. 20/4/12

Sr. III

Sd/ B.N. 19/4/12

NOTES—First Sheet.

G.P.B.—30,000—27-6-11

2

G. R. S. 12]

General and Revenue Secretariat.

Legis File No. 44 of 1911-12

Serial No.

3 Submitted for orders with the specimen copy received.

(SB)
25/4/12

4

5 Subd.

May this be filed now.

Book removed and filed separately

(SB)
10/5/12

(SB)
20/5/12

1/5/12

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—20,000—20-1-12

1 4th / 9 2824

1912.

A

To 1st Councillor

with compliments.

30/3/12

Jud.

28/4/12

Tll

19.4.12

No. 4060.

Name of Petitioner— Managing Proprietor,

Village— Criminal Law Reporter

Taluk— Parvatipur

District— Madras.

Date of Arzi— March 1912.

Date of Receipt— 22-3-12

Date of Disposal—

No. of Enclosure— Two

ABSTRACT.

Prays that his Journal may be subscribed for and supplied to all the Magistrates in the Province

Dcs.

23/3/12

By Post
22/3/12

FROM

The "Criminal Law Reporter" Office,
Parvatipur, (Madras Presidency.)
MARCH 1912.

THE MANAGING PROPRIETOR OF THE

CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER

PARVATIPUR.

To The Dewan Mysore Government
Mysore.

SIR,

As the Publisher of the Criminal Law Reporter I beg to approach you with the following request

2. The journal was started on the 15th day of February 1911. Since the publication was launched into existence, it has been acquiring a widely increasing popularity in all parts of India, and the result has been that the demand for the journal has been daily increasing even in the remotest parts of Burma and Ceylon. The first number of Vol. II for February 1912 and a printed paper containing opinions about the periodical are herein enclosed for your kind perusal. It focuses within its pages verbatim judgments (criminal) reported in all the official and non-official journals, namely, the four series of the I. L. R., the Calcutta Weekly Notes the Calcutta Law Journal, the Bombay Law Reporter, the Allahabad Law Journal, the Madras Law Journal, the Madras Weekly Notes, the Madras Law Times, the Punjab Weekly Reporter, the Punjab Record, the Burma Law Times, the Nagapur Law Reports, the Oudh Cases, and the Sind Law Reporter.

3. The Journal includes leading articles on legal topics, notes of such recent English and American decisions as may have a bearing on the Indian Law and as are likely to be of use to the Bench and the Bar in India.

4. Each volume of 12 parts will contain 600 pages of important reading matter in royal 8 v. o. size.

5. The special features of the publication are
   (a) Each case is carefully studied and digested in as succinct and brief a manner as possible.
   (b) The head-notes are generally in the form of abstract propositions of law.
   (c) All important obiter dicta are noted.

6. Government Officers exercising 2nd and 3rd class Magisterial powers are not, as I hear, supplied with all the journals referred to in para 2 supra, and, consequently, a supply of my periodical to them will, I believe, be of great help to them in the efficient administration of law and justice.

7. The annual subscription inclusive of postage is only Rs. 2—4—0 and it is hardly sufficient to meet the following charges.
   (a) Printing.
   (b) Paper.
   (c) Postage

8. In conclusion I request you will be kind enough to order the supply of my journal to all the Magistrates under your control from this year.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,

P. Veerabhadra

Managing Proprietor.

The Criminal Law Reporter.

OPINIONS.

12 Church Road,
ALLAHABAD.
March 4th 1911.

DEAR SIR,

I am sorry I could not write to you earlier to offer you my best thanks for the copy of your Criminal Law Reporter which you very kindly sent me.

I have looked into the Journal. It contains a good deal of useful information which will be of great help to moffusil practitioners. I wish your venture every success.

Yours truly,
(Sd.) P. C. BANERJE.
(Judge, High Court, Allahabad.)

SIR,

Allow me to thank you very much for a copy of the "Criminal Law Reporter." I have no doubt that it will be very useful.

Faithfully yours,
(Sd.) S. KARAMAT HUSSAIN.
(Judge, High Court, Allahabad.)
26—2—1911.

GOOLSHAN,
Pedder Road,
BOMBAY.
15—4—1911

Dear Sir,

I am obliged to you for the copy of Criminal Law Reporter which I found interesting reading.

Yours sincerely,
(Sd.) D. D. DAVAR.
(Judge, High Court, Bombay.)

P. Vencata Rau Esq.

High Court of Judicature
MADRAS.

DEAR SIR, 23—3—11

I have received the first number of your Criminal Law Reporter. It appears to be a useful and interesting publication.

Yours faithfully,
C. A. WHITE,
(Chief Justice, High Court, Madras.)

21, BELVEDERE ROAD, ALIPORE.

DEAR SIR,

I am much obliged for the copy of the first number of the Criminal Law Reporter which you have so kindly sent me and in which I found much of interest. Please enrol me as a subscriber for one year and send me the next issue per V.P.P.

Yours truly,
T. W. RICHARDSON,
(Judge, High Court, Calcutta.)

To Mr. P. VENCATA RAU, PARVATIPUR.

CALCUTTA,
Feby 20

Dear Sir,

I think your Journal will be very useful to those for whom it is intended and will supply a want in the mofussil.

Yours truly,
H. HOLMWOOD,
(Judge, High Court, Calcutta.)

Inspector-General of Police L. P. (Bengal) "as far as I have been able to exmine it, it appars a useful publication and ought to be of assistance to those for whom it is intended."

The Principal, Law College, Bombay. "I have very great pleasure in stating that the book will be indeed a useful one for the law loving public. Both your summaries and articles are well-calculated to keep a lawyer in touch with the latest news on Criminal Law with a very little sacrifice of time. Looking to the nominal subscription of Rs. 2-4-0, I feel the book is bound to command a good list of subscribers. I authorise you to enrol my name as a subscriber to your work."

The Herald, Calcutta. "This is the first number of a remarkably cheap periodical, intended for those legal practitioners who cannot afford to go in for most costly legal journals, and contains among other legal information (1) leading articles on the right of private defence, on the question of confidential or professional communications, and the art of cross-examination, (2) important legal notifications and decisions, Indian, English and American, (3) and a summary of the several Indian Law Reports.

This number is an excellent promise as regards the quality of the new journal.

The Burma Review. The number sent us besides reports of a considerable number of cases has articles on the Right of private defence, Confidential or Professional communications, an interesting address delivered by a K. C to the Ontario Bar Association on the art of cross-examination besides other matter The publication should be useful to all Magistrates and Pleaders at the low cost of Rs. 2-4-0 per annum, we think the Cr. Law Reporter should be a success.

The Crescent. A very useful and astonishingly cheap Journal for pleaders etc.

The Times of Assam. "We wish the journal every success and hope it will be adequately patronised."

Inspector-General of Police, P. (Bengal).—"I have been asked whether it appears a useful publication and might be of assistance to those for whom it is intended."

The Principal, Law College, Bombay.—"I have very great pleasure in stating that the book will be indeed a useful one for the Law loving public. Both your summaries and articles are well-calculated to keep a lawyer in touch with the latest news on Criminal Law with a very little sacrifice of time. Looking to the nominal subscription of Rs. 2-4-0, I feel the book is bound to command a good list of subscribers. I endorse you to carry on your work in your work."

The Herald, Calcutta.—"This is the first number of a remarkably cheap periodical intended for those legal practitioners who cannot afford to go in for more costly legal journals, and contains among other legal information (1) leading articles on the right of private defence, on the question of confidential or professional communications, and the art of cross-examination, (2) important legal rectifications and decisions, Indian, English and American, (3) and a summary of the several Indian Law Reports.

This number is an excellent promise as regards the quality of the new journal.

The Burma Review.—The number sent us besides reports of a considerable number of cases has articles on the Right of private defence, Confidential Professional communications, an interesting address delivered by a K. C. to the Bar Association on the art of cross-examination besides other matter. The publication should be useful to all Magistrates and Pleaders at the low cost of Rs. 2-4-0 per annum, we think the Cr. Law Reporter should be a success.

The Crescent.—A very useful and economical ugly cheap Journal for pleaders etc.

The Times of Assam.—"We wish the Journal every success and hope it is adequately patronised